

Fans Pack Stands As Exciting Games Mark Opening of Baseball Play

Baseball of big league calibre is being played nightly in Torrance ball park as the Southern California Championship double-elimination tournament is well under way.

The Iron Workers, Los Angeles, won the right to meet Bondy's All Stars in the first game of the second round, Sunday, Aug. 12, the Iron Workers taking Pittsburgh Pirate Jrs. 6 to 2 in the opener Saturday night. Bondy's shut out the Long Beach Ellbees Sunday night in a pitchers' battle, 2 to 0.

The Pirates and Ellbees meet Monday night, Aug. 13, in the first elimination game.

Packed grandstands have greeted the games so far played, even exceeding the expectations of the American Legion Post No. 170, Torrance, and the Southern California Baseball Association, joint sponsors. As a result, more seats were to be moved in this week.

Every moment of each game is packed with "big league" excitement, even to the beating the umpire takes from the fans who are coming from all parts of Los Angeles County to watch 16 leading Southern California teams work down to the final game which will decide the Southern California championship.

The schedule for this week: Thursday, Ex-Legion Chicks, Long Beach, vs. Arcadia; Friday, Pacific Clay Products vs. Paramount Studio Cubs; Saturday, Pacific Pipe Lines vs. North American Aircraft.

Torrance's own, the Torrance Athletic Club, took a beating at the hands of the Sky Lane Cafe, Burbank, Monday night, the visitors walking away with the long end of a 7 to 5 score at the end of the third game of the Southern California Championship Baseball tournament being played in Torrance Ball Park.

A home run by Leash of Sky Lane, in the sixth inning, first of the tournament, resulted in two runs, Leash knocking in one man on base.

Line score:
Sky Lane ... 021 004 000—7 11 2
Torrance ... 201 020 000—5 11 3

For Sky Lane: Potocar and Linville. For Torrance: Cottle, Waters and Willz.

Rosebell Plumbers, Tuesday night defeated the A. F. of L., Long Beach, by the sound score of 12 to 4, earned the right to meet the Sky Lane Cafe, Burbank, in the 11th game of the Southern California Championship Baseball Association tournament in Torrance ball park, Tuesday night at 8:15 p.m.

By virtue of losing the Rosebell game, the A. F. of L., must meet the defeated Torrance Athletic Club in the second elimination game of the tournament next Wednesday night, Sky Lane Cafe beat Torrance A. C. Monday night 7 to 5.

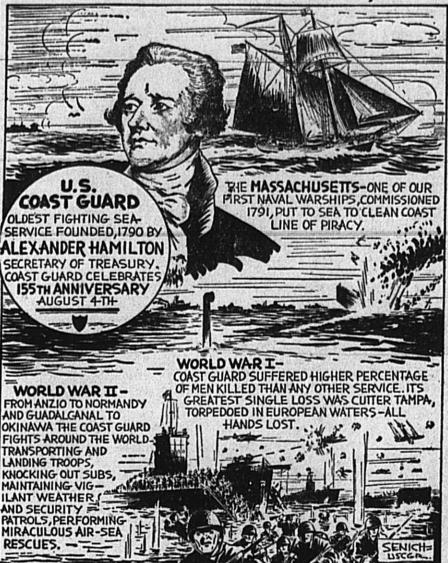

Rosebell Plumbers ... 003 031 230—12 12 1
A.F. of L. ... 000 100 030—4 8 7

Alderman, Metkovich; Mallett, Cecil and Swope

As the Torrance Herald went to press last night, Standard Oil's fast team from El Segundo was meeting Signal Oil in Torrance park.
